

products: what to buy

Transform your dressing and grooming spaces with fashion-forward add-ons.

1

2

3

4

1 just in case

Store electronics, cosmetics, glasses, and more in zippered pouches with graphic labels. All four pieces clip together for speedy purse switching ($20). Great Useful Stuff; 800/341-9159; greatusefulstuff.com

2 yee-haw

Protect boots and save space when you hang up to 10 pairs on this rack. Clips hold heavy footwear without damage ($20 for three hangers, $25 for rack). Boottique; 855/266-8588; boottique.com

3 daily doubler

Maximize storage inside medicine cabinets and other shallow cabinets with a nonskid plastic shelf. It's perfectly sized for small jars and bottles ($7). Oxo; 800/545-4411; oxo.com

4 dress for success

Stylish drawers and angled shoe shelves make the new Impressions line of do-it-yourself laminate closet elements an attractive upgrade (kits from $110). Closetmaid; 800/874-0008; closetmaid.com

5

Sort personal items by frequency of use for fuss-free mornings.

6

7

8

Writer Chelsea Evers Photographer (1 and 2) Jay Wilde

5 divine dresser

Keep folded items sorted and properly piled with these heavy-duty expanding drawer dividers. A locking mechanism ensures they stay in place ($20 for a set of two). Oxo; 800/545-4411; oxo.com

6 cart smart

Park this laundry sorter in a closet, then roll it to the laundry room on washday. The upper shelf corrals freshly folded garments ($39). Better Homes and Gardens® for Wal-Mart; 800/925-6278; walmart.com

7 slim down

Shallow and stackable, Trones flip-out cabinets (two shown) mount to the wall, claiming untapped storage space. Fill with magazines, gloves, and more ($40 for three cabinets). IKEA; 888/434-4532; ikea.com

8 tangle-free

Avoid a mess of styling appliances with this mirrored station. An interior power strip and cord compartment means tools are always ready to use ($170). Style & Go; 949/683-7617; thestyleandgo.com

bhg.com/storage